

As of Novermber 19, 2015

Strategic Directions (National)	Objectives (Lower Mainland Chapter)	Chapter Activities	Chapter Contact
Revolutionize the CCHL		1) Develop and implement communications strategy:
Experience (create an		a. Social media strategy unparalleled experience with		b. Email campaign members and be seen as critical		6. Enrigorocal benefits of mentorship program 1 1 9
to the enablement of exciting and	D. 11. (C. 1)	d) Promotion of events fulfilling career trajectory in	The state of the s	e) Provide information on Chapter's vision/intent with educational programming health) 1	chapter members	f) Develop member newsletter	Moe Baloo Provide an effective "on-boarding" experience for new members	1) Develop and implement an "on-boarding" strategy for new members, in collaboration with CCHL national	Jerry Stanger Donaida anno anticista formando de la company (a company de la company d
		1. Provide more opportunities for members (current and retired) to become involved in chapter activities, decision making, etc.
		a. Use event survey to identify people interested in helping shape our objectives, provide feedback, etc
		b. Run 2 focus group (Topics TBD) – Vancouver & Surrey
		c. Run 2-3 mins ice breaker exercise before each event (expectation, interest, etc)
		2. Develop opportunities to increase knowledge of CHE designation.
		a. Arrange a join webinar with National. Karen to followup
		b. Add a brief intro on CHE as part of Chair's opening remarks
		3. Develop plan to support chapter members completing the CHE
		a. Identify if there are any tool kits that executive can use to familiarize themselves on CHE
		b. Online blog for CHE's (sharing best practices, asking questions, mentorship opp, etc)
		4. Conduct annual member satisfaction surveys
 		a. Relook at membership survey and add/edit questions to provide feedback to executives
!	Improve member experience & engagement	a. nelodical membersing survey and dady can questions to provide reconstruct executives	Sadiq Panjwani
	improve member experience a engagement		Sadiq i diljivalii
1
2. Stimulate Transformative
Thought (challenge and disrupt		Membership education/development:
traditional notions of leadership		1) Develop a focused (strategic theme) program plan of events that support the Professional Development (PD) needs of leaders.
through debate, innovation and		2) Increase accessibility and appeal of events (availability of webinars, cross sector appeal, etc.)
programs for members; advance	· ·	Venue and Logistics:
meaningful system reform)	meet the needs of chapter members	1) Ensure events are offered in diverse locations to appeal to members across the lower mainlaind.	Michelle de Moor
		Partnership engagement:
		Partnership engagement:
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships.
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate &
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members)
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan:
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan:
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation
		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships.
3. Networks of laftwares		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership
3. Networks of influence		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership
(create access to provocative,		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified.
(create access to provocative,		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic education partnership ressus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016	Julia Raudzus
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative		Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement:	Julia Raudzus
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic elliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership versus a strategic dudation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic elliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers.	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers.	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers.	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers.	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership versus a strategic aduation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 2. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events 3) Seek out new sponsors on an annual basis and for special events	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic education partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events 3) Seek out new sponsors on an annual basis and for special events 4) Evaluate the ROI on Chapter events & event management company; examine benefit of a "venue planning group" with goal to mix up location of events	Dacia Howard
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative events)	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders Ensure financial viability and sustainability of	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnerships. 2. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events 3) Seek out new sponsors on an annual basis and for special events 4) Evaluate the ROI on Chapter events & event management company; examine benefit of a "venue planning group" with goal to mix up location of events 5) Participate in National/Chapter Budget Discussions Board/CAC (Paul)	Dacia Howard Jovanovic
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders Ensure financial viability and sustainability of chapter	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnership 3. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events 3) Seek out new sponsors on an annual basis and for special events 4) Evaluate the ROI on Chapter events & event management company; examine benefit of a "venue planning group" with goal to mix up location of events 5) Participate in National/Chapter Budget Discussions Board/CAC (Paul) 6) Create "tiered" sponsorship options	Dacia Howard Jovanovic
(create access to provocative, inspired, and collaborative events)	Advance partnerships and alliances Support emerging health care leaders Ensure financial viability and sustainability of	Partnership engagement: a. Develop an evaluation process to identify areas for improvement regarding partnerships. b. Seek out opportunities to add additional partners from educational institutions (may explore UFV, identify corporate & commercial members) c. Actively nurture strategic partnerships and innovation through co-jointly sponsored conferences and events Plan: 1. Create an inventory of current partnerships and strategic contacts - using the strategic alliance frameworks and evaluation structure for the MHA program at UBC and EMBA program at Sauder we are developing a list of partnerships. 2. Define relationship parameters with partnerships ie what are the terms of reference for the partnerships. 2. Define terminology used with partners based on outcomes ie what is the difference between a strategic affiliation partnership versus a strategic alliance partnership 4. Develop an evaluation process to complete with all partners to ensure that commitments are fulfilled, the duration of the partnership is understood and furthers strengths, weaknesses and values of the partnership can be identified. 5. Commit to exploring one additional partnership agreement by the end of 2016 1) Student and emerging leader engagement: A) Evaluate effectiveness of Mentorship Program and align with National & LEADS model b) Develop opportunities to engage students, emerging health leaders & leaders c) Foster opportunities for student participation as volunteers. 1) Develop sponsorship engagement plan (incl. retention) 2) Reduce costs of chapter events 3) Seek out new sponsors on an annual basis and for special events 4) Evaluate the ROI on Chapter events & event management company; examine benefit of a "venue planning group" with goal to mix up location of events 5) Participate in National/Chapter Budget Discussions Board/CAC (Paul)	Dacia Howard Jovanovic