

Come Together

How will your health story be told?

Gennie Walton, CHE, CHIM

Helen Beaumont, BMgmt, CHIM

Key Takeaways

The people & knowledge
behind the profession

The Health Information
Management Profession
– from inception to today

Advocating for the proper use of health data

Avenues for involvement

What Is My (Personal) Story?

What Is My (Medical) Story?

What is a health
record?

Who handles
health
records?

Why is this important?

The History of the Profession

The electronic medical record system was installed at Akron Children's Hospital in 1962.
The 'Miracle' of Digital Health Records, 50 Years Ago, Steve Lohr, February 17th, 2012, New York Times.

"If I describe the medical file I need, could you go fetch it for me?"

Current Scope of the Profession

Information Governance

Data Quality

Clinical Knowledge

Analytics

Privacy

Technology

Ethics, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion are embedded through these practice areas.

Health Information in the Workforce

Digitization in Medical Coding

The Health & Life Insurance Sector

Risk Assessment & Underwriting

Population Health Management

Claims Processing & Fraud Detection

Healthcare Analytics & Predictive Modeling

The image shows a standard Health Insurance Claim Form (HC-90) from the National Uniform Claim Committee. The form is divided into several sections:

- Section 1: PATIENT'S NAME (Last, First, Middle Initial) and Section 2: PATIENT'S ADDRESS (No. Street) - Includes fields for city, state, zip code, and telephone number.
- Section 3: PATIENT'S DATE OF BIRTH - Includes fields for month, day, and year.
- Section 4: PATIENT'S SEX - Includes checkboxes for Male and Female.
- Section 5: PATIENT'S OCCUPATION - Includes fields for occupation and employer's name.
- Section 6: PATIENT'S POLICY OR GROUP NUMBER - Includes fields for policy number and group number.
- Section 7: PATIENT'S STATUS - Includes checkboxes for Regular, Temporary, and Other.
- Section 8: PATIENT'S RELATIONSHIP TO INSURED - Includes checkboxes for Self, Spouse, Child, and Other.
- Section 9: PATIENT'S SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER - Includes fields for the number.
- Section 10: PATIENT'S MEDICAL HISTORY - Includes checkboxes for various conditions like Diabetes, Hypertension, etc.
- Section 11: PATIENT'S PREVIOUS HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN - Includes checkboxes for various plans.
- Section 12: PATIENT'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the patient's signature and a date field.
- Section 13: PATIENT'S AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the representative's signature and a date field.
- Section 14: PATIENT'S MEDICAL HISTORY - Includes checkboxes for various conditions like Diabetes, Hypertension, etc.
- Section 15: PATIENT'S PREVIOUS HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN - Includes checkboxes for various plans.
- Section 16: PATIENT'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the patient's signature and a date field.
- Section 17: PATIENT'S AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the representative's signature and a date field.
- Section 18: PATIENT'S MEDICAL HISTORY - Includes checkboxes for various conditions like Diabetes, Hypertension, etc.
- Section 19: PATIENT'S PREVIOUS HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN - Includes checkboxes for various plans.
- Section 20: PATIENT'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the patient's signature and a date field.
- Section 21: PATIENT'S AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE'S SIGNATURE AND DATE - Includes a line for the representative's signature and a date field.

Wearable Device Sector

Remote Monitoring

Personalized Healthcare

Clinical Research & Population

Intersectionality of Health Information

Insurance companies historically rely on protective value studies and medical research to quantify mortality risk.

Utilizing fluid collection, prescription history, vehicle records, etc.

Now, insurers can tap into historical wearable device data to determine lifestyle of coverage applicants.

June Quah, VP of Integrated Analytics, Munich Re North America Life, The Future is Now: Wearable Devices for Insurance Risk Assessments.

Who Is Looking at My Health Data?

Information Governance

Data Quality

Clinical Knowledge

Analytics

Privacy

Technology

Ethics, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion are embedded through these practice areas.

How are we supporting the evolution of the Health
Information profession?

Thank you!

Get Involved

 +1-519-438-6700

 general@echima.ca

 www.echima.ca or
www.cchim.ca