Canada West Health Leaders Conference 2024

The CCHL Highlights is a quarterly update showcasing upcoming events and the latest College news for our partners and peer associations. We encourage you to share the notable content to your respective platforms, newsletters, and communities when a communications kit is available to download for our main events.

CCHL CEO Reflections: 2024 CCHL National Conference

When our team started planning for the 2024 CCHL national conference, we didn't know with 100% certainty how the theme Come Together! would play out in the sessions and in the atmosphere during the conference. Of course, we knew that coming together and supporting all health professions is essential to the ongoing transformation and performance of our health system.

A few weeks later, as I think back and reflect on our four plenary presentations, it is now clear to me that all our speakers recognized the need for a shift from individual level to organizational level resilience, and likewise a growing need for organizations as a whole to embrace leadership development, support, and community building. Everyone knows we need to come together. READ MORE

CCHL Announces Commitment to Improve Health Services Leadership for Indigenous Health in Canada

The Canadian College of Health Leaders has long recognized the need to respond to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's (TRC) Calls to Action. We recognize the need to address the legacy of colonization, residential schools, and on-going systemic racism that has led to inequitable population health outcomes for Indigenous peoples in Canada. To this end, and after much internal reflection, we are sharing with you today, our public commitment to improving First Nations, Metis and Inuit health outcomes in Canada by creating the space and support our leaders need to develop their new ways of being. CCHL Presents New Leadership Organization Evaluation Tool

The Canadian College of Health Leaders has developed Canada's first set of benchmarks to guide and support organizations to successfully integrate leadership into their organizational culture. The evidence-based CCHL Leadership Organization (CLO) benchmarks, a leadership integration guide for organizations, are sorted within seven categories that demonstrate a purposefully cultivated leadership culture. CCHL has developed a self-assessment tool designed to guide organizations in evaluating their current state of leadership integration based on the CLO benchmarks. READ MORE

Healthcare Management Forum - Call for abstracts on human factors in healthcare

Healthcare Management Forum is planning a special edition on human factors in healthcare for January 2026.
