CCHL CEO Reflections: Mid-Year Update from the President & CEO

Six months into this role, I'm thrilled to share what I've learned from travelling coast to coast to coast. I've spent the spring and early summer crisscrossing Canada, visiting our chapters and engaging directly with members at AGMs and other educational events. Our members have afforded me the gift of their time – I've led 30 focus groups, held 16 one-on-one interviews, and gathered input from a survey with 339 respondents. We've just returned from a very successful CCHL National Conference – spending time with nearly 500 participants and celebrating with our Award winners was inspirational – and informational. The takeaway? We have an enthusiastic, engaged community that truly cares about the College and about each other.
